

Matter Scout

Matter Scout is a web app capable of identifying, processing and visualizing unusual data streams from weather and seismic sensors on the Matterhorn.

Users can access and explore an archive of extraordinary events extracted by machine learning techniques. They get the chance to learn about the extreme conditions on the mountain and help recognising unusual patterns.

